Dear Colin,

RE: ACCREDITATION OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN HEALTHCARE CONFERENCE 2026

We are pleased to inform you that your application for the accreditation of the following CPD workshop has been approved.

Your event has been accredited in accordance with the requirements of the Association of South African Quantity Surveyors (ASAQS) for a total of 10 CPD hours in Category 2.

Delegates can earn CPD hours as follows:

- 10 CPD hours for attending both days of the conference (9–10 June 2026); or
- 5 CPD hours for attending either 9 June 2026 or 10 June 2026.

Accreditation reference no: ASAQS CPD 2026-18-CS

The Conditions of Accreditation are attached hereto.

Yours sincerely,

Nolubabalo Tsolo
Executive Director

2. General

The ASAQS shall be informed of any changes to the event title and content, the provider, or the presenter, and timeously submit appropriate documents to indicate the changes. The ASAQS may withdraw the accreditation of the event for various reasons. Reasons include, but are not limited to:

- The event is obsolete.
- The event is not achieving the intended objectives.
- There is loss of integrity and reputation in the event.
- There are changes to the event title or content, the provider, or the presenter, etc.
- There is a breakdown in the working relationship between ASAQS and the event provider, or presenter.
- Non-compliance with the Protection of Personal Information (POPI) Act

3. Promoting the event

Promotion of the event shall include the following information:

- Accreditation reference
- Event title
- Abstract of event content and presenter

- Date, time, and venue
- CPD Hours and Category

The provider may use the ASAQS logo on promotional material for the specifically approved event, only during the period for which its accreditation is valid. The use of our logo should be done, both responsibly and appropriately. It should not dominate your marketing strategy but support it as proof of accreditation only. It should not appear above, or as part of your heading. It should rather be placed in a sub-ordinate position and should be of a size that does not compete with your logo. Any misuse of our logo may result in the withdrawal of our accreditation. (A copy of our logo will be provided on request)

The following statement must appear on all promotional material for this specifically approved event: “ASAQS Accreditation: 10 CPD Hours in Category 2 for attending both days, alternatively 5 hours in Category 2 for attending on 09 June 2026 and 5 hours in Category 2 for attending on 10 June 2026”.

Promotion of this event, through advertising or any other means, is the responsibility of the service provider and the ASAQS has no obligation to do so.

4. Record of attendance

The provider shall keep an attendance register, which must be signed by each delegate, on each day of attendance and submitted to the ASAQS within 14 days of the event having been presented. The attendance register must include the delegates:

- Name
- Surname
- Contact details.
- ID Number

The provider should ensure that each delegate receives confirmation of participation in the event by issuing a certificate of attendance either at the event, or by e-mail, or by post within 14 days of the event having been presented. Confirmation of participation in the event shall contain the following information.

- Accreditation reference
- Event title
- Date presented.
- CPD Hours and Category
- Name and surname of the participant

- Evaluation

The provider shall grant each delegate the opportunity to complete the event evaluation questionnaire.

A summary of the evaluation shall be submitted to the ASAQS within 14 days of the event having been presented. Detailed evaluation data shall be made available to the ASAQS on request.

5. Intellectual Property & Indemnity

The accredited provider warrants that all training material, content, and resources submitted for CPD accreditation are original or that the necessary permissions, licences, or rights have been obtained for their use.

ASAQS does not verify the ownership of intellectual property contained within submitted materials and accepts no responsibility or liability for any infringement of third-party rights. The provider hereby indemnifies and holds ASAQS harmless against any claims, disputes, losses, or damages arising from any actual or alleged infringement of intellectual property rights or any other rights of third parties in relation to the submitted content.

6. EduTech CPD Events

EduTech (A division of the ASAQS) may from time-to-time initiate CPD Events and call on the provider to partner with them in the presentation of an ASAQS accredited event. The details of the partnership would be negotiated in each case.

7. Accreditation Fees

None

8. Special Conditions

ASAQS to:

- Accredit the event at no cost.

9. Acknowledgement

ASAQS accredited CPD events will be accessible to our members. We place a high value on membership support, and we have accredited you with this in mind.

Please ensure that you uphold the professional standard expected of you. We will work with you towards achieving this end.

10. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION (POPI) ACT

As the course provider, you are to always ensure full compliance with the POPI Act, particularly regarding the gathering and management of personal information taken from course delegates/attendees, irrespective of whether the course material is presented face-to-face, or online. This duty remains the responsibility of the course provider and any contravention of same will result in the withdrawal of our accreditation.
